

Caroline Chu

Caroline started dancing at 5 and hasn't stopped since! Caroline has taught for many studios in the lower North Island as well as Canada where she lived for 5 years and where she also spent time teaching dance in high schools and elementary schools around Victoria BC. Caroline has adjudicated and taught classes around New Zealand for Dance NZ Made and teaches Shut Up and Dance classes around the Wellington area. Her specialty is jazz and lyrical jazz. She performed as a cheerleader for the Hurricanes, as Cassandra in Wellington Musical Theatre's production of CATS, and for various television and sporting events in Wellington. She has just completed her 200hr yoga teacher training this June 2017. Caroline has 3 children and also works part time as a receptionist.
