

Liesl Eksteen

Liesl Eksteen succeeded as a professional company dancer traveling the world choreographing and performing in numerous television shows, corporate floorshows, music videos and musicals.

Living in London, Liesl expanded her opportunities by teaching and performing in the UK. Liesl was then given the opportunity to perform in Bollywood working with world class choreographers in Bollywood movies, music videos and VIP events.

Liesl is now enjoying passing her knowledge on to others using her connections in the industry and choreographing for companies such as GMG Productions' Madagascar the Musical. Liesl still involves herself in New Zealand-based performances such as World of Wearable Arts, touring shows and local corporate work.

The last three years, Liesl led the Commercial Dance Course at Te Auaha, and is now a co-founder in Wellington's newest dance company 'The Dance Lab' where she can continue sharing her experience and passion to the next generation of professional dancers. Liesl is also now working at the New Zealand School of Dance as their Student Support Manager, continuing to support current full-time dancers.
