

Sarah Lauder

Dance and creativity are in Sarah's blood. She trained in classical ballet from the age of 12 at the Nelson Academy of Dance and then trained commercial dance at the Whitireia Performing Arts Centre. After she graduated from WPAC she moved to Brisbane where she auditioned for dance companies, taught dance classes and worked for two entertainment companies. She then moved to London to continue auditioning and working as a freelance dancer. In 2019 she accepted and completed a dancer/aerialist contract with Royal Caribbean Cruise Line which she absolutely loved doing! She got offered another contract after her first one but due to Covid the contract ended early. She is now back in New Zealand and is excited to be able to share with NZ performers everything she learnt from overseas.

